

Barbara Cargnelli-Weichselbaum

Curriculum vitae:

1973 born in Mödling, Austria

Professional experience

2008 until now Assistant professor at the Department of Constitutional and Administrative Law at the University of Vienna

2008-2009 Secondment to the Austrian Federal Chancellery, Section III (Public Service and Administrative Reform)

2007-2008 Legal intern at the Vienna Higher Regional Court

1996-2007 Civil service employee (assistant) and university assistant at the Department of Constitutional and Administrative Law at the University of Vienna
Lecturer and examiner at the Verwaltungsakademie des Bundes (administrative academy of the Austrian Federal Government) (basic training and continuing professional training)

Lecturer and examiner at University for Continuing Education Krems (postgraduate education)

Lecturing and publishing activities in German, English and French for academics, for experts in the public service and for NGOs as well as for interested and/or non-specialised laypeople

Education

1996 to 2000 Doctoral studies in Law (University of Vienna)

1992 to 1996: Diploma studies in Law (University of Vienna)

1984 to 1992 Academic secondary school Bundesgymnasium Baden, Frauengasse, Austria

1980 to 1984 Elementary school in Neu-Guntramsdorf, Austria

Key research areas:

- Constitutional law
- Administrative law
- Fundamental rights and human rights
- Specialisation: Public service law, poverty and law

(including comparative, international and European law perspectives)

For more information on my expertise, professional experience and academic tasks:

<https://staatsrecht.univie.ac.at/team/cargnelli-weichselbaum-barbara/>