

Short Bio:

Dr. Jill Alpes is the Principal Investigator of the REMOVED project (Removal Infrastructures for Syrians in Lebanon and Turkey), hosted by the Institute for Migration Studies at the Lebanese American University and the Institute for International Studies at the Erasmus University Rotterdam. As a legal anthropologist of migration, Jill combines qualitative ethnographic (observations, in-depth interviews, life histories), legal (laws and judgments) and participatory approaches (future literacy labs). Author of a monograph published by Routledge entitled “Brokering High-Risk Migration and Illegality: Abroad at any cost,” Jill’s main research sites are in Cameroon and Lebanon, with additional fieldwork sites in Africa (Nigeria, Niger, Mali, DRC) and Europe (France, Greece, Italy, Cyprus, Turkey). As part of the ERC project DISSECT (2021-2024), Jill studied the production of evidence for pushback cases at the European Court of Human Rights. As part of this research project, she published:

- Alpes, M.J., Baranowska, G., (2024), “The politics of legal facts: The erasure of pushback evidence from the European Court of Human Rights”, Law and Social Inquiry.
- Baranowska, G., and Alpes, M.J., (2024), “Official recognition of unofficial practices in M.A. and Z.R. v Cyprus: Examining the politics of legal facts for pushback cases at the ECtHR,” RLI Blog on Refugee Law and Forced Migration.
- J. Alpes and G. Baranowska. (2024) What’s beneath the iceberg in M.A. and Z.R. v Cyprus? The erasure of pushback evidence at borders, Border Criminology Blog.