

Ewald Wiederin

Curriculum vitae:

1961 born in Satteins, Austria

1979 Secondary-school leaving certificate from a modern languages academic secondary school, Kolleg Stella Matutina, Feldkirch

1979-1984 Studies of Law at the University of Vienna

1984-1995 University assistant at the Department of Constitutional and Administrative Law at the University of Vienna

1995 Habilitation degree in constitutional law, administrative law and comparative public law (thesis on federal law and state law, a contribution on structural problems of the federal distribution of competences in Austria and Germany)

1995-1996 Employee in the Federal Chancellery's constitutional service in Austria

Since 2000 Associate professor at the Department of Constitutional and Administrative Law at the University of Vienna

2000-2009 University Professor of General Political Science, Administration, Constitutional and Administrative Law, University of Salzburg

Since 2009 University Professor of Public Law, University of Vienna

Key research areas:

- Law of government bodies
- General administrative law
- Law on administrative procedure